Included:

- Steps to get started
- Search Instructions
- Ordering steps
- Additional Information

Getting started

1. Sign up for free

There is no fee to register on Stilio. Your only fees are associated with orders and include: Photographer fees (set by photographer, not Stilio) and the Stilio transaction fee per order.

2. Complete your profile

- a) Input your name, business address, contact info, etc.
- b) Add a credit card for payment (Stilio is PCI compliant)

You can always search the Stilio photographer network prior to entering this info. However, this info must be completed prior to booking a photographer.

3. Blog

Learn about real estate photography/marketing related topics on Stilio's blog.

Search

The search feature was created to focus on available, local photographers. Simply enter your listing address and date and Stilio will filter our nationwide network of photographers down to those photographers available in your local area. You will be able to browse the profiles of all available photographers closest to your listing. Simply review their profiles, products offered, and prices.

Order Process

Step 1: Select photographer and click "Book Now."

Follow the prompts and place your order. You will be able to confirm the listing address, date, time, and products ordered. You will also be able to add a comment or note for the photographer during this step.

Step 2: Confirm order

The photographer will receive the order and will either confirm or decline the order and you will receive notice.

Step 3: Do the shoot

Meet the photographer at the listing address and complete the shoot. You will not be able to select your photos after editing so it is important to attend the shoot and review your photos onsite.

Step 4: Payment

Your credit card will be automatically charged once the order has been edited and completed and ready for delivery.

Step 5: Delivery

You will receive notification of order completion and your photos will be ready for your use.
